

RE Long-term planning at Bovey Tracey Primary School

RE Principal aim

The principal aim of religious education is to explore what people believe and what difference this makes to how they live, so that pupils can gain the knowledge, understanding and skills needed to handle questions raised by religion and belief, reflecting on their own ideas and ways of living.

Equality objectives throughout our curriculum:

We ensure equality of opportunity for all pupils, staff, parents and carers irrespective of race, gender, disability, belief, sexual orientation, age or socio-economic background. We are determined to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which all are treated with courtesy, respect, integrity and dignity. We want our whole school community to feel proud of their identity and ability to participate fully in school life.

To be covered across all areas of the curriculum whenever the children are using technology:

- be responsible, competent, confident and creative users of information and communication technology.
- Use technology safely and respectfully, keeping personal information private.
- Identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about the content or contact on the internet or other online technologies.
